

CSCI 265-001
Fall 2005

Homework 2

Due on Thursday 9/22 at the beginning of the class

The homework policy is described in the slides of the 1st lecture

Total number of points: 170 [10 points for each problem] plus 20 Extra Credit Points

If you start doing your homework early you will have plenty of time to finish it. Do not wait until the last minute because this class introduces novel concepts that are not very difficult, but require some time to be digested.

Extensions are provided only in special and emergency situations. Please contact me before the due date to request any extension.

Please write your answers very neatly. If I cannot read your solutions, then I cannot give you any credit. Also, please provide the solutions in a sequential manner.
